Day 3: SONAMARG - KARGIL - 13th, May 2024

Night stay: Kargil

Next day morning after a healthy breakfast at the hotel, leave for Kargil is one of the two districts (the other being Leh) & the joint capital of Ladakh, the newly created Union Territory of India. It is located at an altitude of 8,80 feet above sea level on the banks of the Suru River. A tourist spending their holidays in Kargil will easily fall in love with its landscape, which has plenty of contrast. There are valleys, lakes & mountains, along with monasteries which offer lovely sightseeing opportunities. Some of the most famous places in Kargil like Suru Valley lend it its marvellous beauty. Starting from Kargil, it stretches all the way to Penzi La watershed. Surrounded by mountains from all sides, it is a place of heavenly beauty with orchards of mulberry, apple & apricot trees dotting its landscape. There are several opportunities for sightseeing in Kargil, both for nature lovers & those looking to get a glimpse into its fascinating Tibetan Buddhist history & heritage. For sightseeing, you can head towards Suru Valley, which is great for enjoying a picnic and is dotted with numerous picnic spots like Stakpa, Thulus, Parkachik & Sangra. There is also the undisturbed tranquillity of Kargil Pensi La Lake, which is surrounded by mountains and perfect for spending some quality time. Those wanting to get a glimpse of its heritage & history should visit the Rangdum Monastery & Mulbekh Monastery in Kargil. Besides admiring the architecture, Tibetan artefacts & even their location, you can interact with the monks. You should definitely visit the Kargil War Memorial, which is an extremely important part of its history. Built in pink sandstone to commemorate the soldiers of the Indian Army who lost their lives in the Kargil War, it contains the names of all the soldiers who lost their lives in the war. From here, you can also enjoy the views of Tiger Hill, Point 4875 (Batra Top) & Tololing Heights. After post sightseeing return back to Kargil overnight in hotel.

Day 4: KARGIL - LEH - 14th, May 2024

Night stay: Kargil

Next day morning after a healthy breakfast at the hotel, leave for soar to the “roof of the world” on an amazing flight over the Himalayas. After an hour and a half, you reach Leh, the capital of Ladakh. Transfer to your hotel and proceed with the check-in. Leh is located at an altitude of 3,500 metres above sea level so you need to take it easy at the beginning to give time to your body to adjust to this altitude. Drinking plenty of water and walking at a slow pace are the two important recommendations to remember. Stroll the main market and have lunch where you like. There are many eating options and you could try local dishes too. Start exploring Leh with the visit to the Leh palace. This nine-storey edifice rising above the old town was built by the king of Ladakh during the first half of the 17th century. Inside, a museum exhibits a collection of jewellery and ornaments belonging to the royal family. From the palace, a winding path leads to Namgyal Tsemo gompa. This Buddhist mud-brick monastery dominating the city of Leh was founded in 1430 and it houses a three-storey-high statue of the Future Buddha. Thousands of fluttering prayer flags connect to the nearby Victory Peak. after post sightseeing return back to hotel overnight in hotel.
