Day 4: Munnar To Thekkady - 4th, Jul 2024

Night stay: Thekkady

Embarking on a journey from Munnar to Thekkady offers a picturesque drive through the heart of Kerala's lush landscapes. Begin your day in Munnar with an early morning departure, allowing you to soak in the scenic beauty of the rolling tea plantations and verdant hills as you wind your way down the Ghats. The route, approximately 90 kilometers long, is dotted with charming little towns and roadside viewpoints. Your first significant stop can be at the Lockhart Gap, offering panoramic views of the valleys and mist-clad mountains—a perfect spot for some breathtaking photographs. Continuing on, you'll pass through the small town of Devikulam, known for its idyllic setting and the Sita Devi Lake, which is worth a brief detour. As you progress towards Thekkady, the landscape transforms from tea plantations to dense forests and spice gardens. A visit to a spice plantation en route is a must, where you can learn about the cultivation of various spices like cardamom, pepper, and vanilla. Upon arriving in Thekkady, make your way to the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary, one of India's most famous wildlife reserves. Here, you can take a boat ride on the Periyar Lake, offering a unique opportunity to spot wildlife such as elephants, deer, and a variety of bird species in their natural habitat. If time permits, enjoy a guided nature walk or a jeep safari to explore the dense forests and rich biodiversity further. This journey from Munnar to Thekkady not only offers a transition from serene hills to vibrant wildlife but also encapsulates the diverse beauty of Kerala's landscapes.

Day 5: Thekkady to Alleppey - 5th, Jul 2024

Night stay: Alleppey

Embarking on the journey from Thekkady to Alleppey offers a transition from the lush, wildlife-rich landscapes of the Western Ghats to the serene backwaters of Kerala. Start your day early in Thekkady with a morning visit to the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary if you haven't already. Here, you can enjoy a peaceful boat ride on Periyar Lake, giving you a final glimpse of the region's rich biodiversity, including elephants, sambar deer, and various bird species. Afterward, set off on the approximately 140-kilometer drive to Alleppey, a journey that takes around 4-5 hours. The drive itself is a treat, as you wind down from the highlands through picturesque villages, rubber and spice plantations, and scenic valleys. A stop at the town of Vandiperiyar can be a refreshing break; it's known for its numerous tea factories and lush gardens, providing a perfect spot for some light refreshments and a stroll. As you approach Alleppey, the landscape gradually shifts to a network of canals, paddy fields, and coconut groves. Upon reaching Alleppey, head straight to the famous backwaters, where a houseboat cruise awaits. Check into a traditional Kettuvallam houseboat for an overnight stay, allowing you to float gently through the tranquil waters, witnessing the unique lifestyle of the locals living along the banks, lush greenery, and the vibrant birdlife. Enjoy freshly prepared Kerala cuisine on board as you relax and unwind. This itinerary offers a rich blend of Kerala's diverse natural beauty, from wildlife and highlands to the serene backwaters, making your journey from Thekkady to Alleppey an unforgettable experience.
